Updates for GLBT Pride 2000 - June 11, 2000

Procter & Gamble supports Pride - The Y2000 GLBT Pride Parade and Rally committee receives a $1000 check from the Procter & Gamble Company - North American Diversity.

Two Cincinnati based P&G employees are part of this years pride efforts: Marlene B. Feder, and Michael X. Chanak. Both have been active in the Company's diversity efforts, serve as Consulting Pairs (Pope & Associates) and are part of GABLE - Gay & Bi-sexual Lesbian Employees of P&G. Chanak, a gay employee of the Company is the advisor to the committee organized by Chris Good. Feder will speak at the Rally at 11 a.m. in Burnet Woods.

For more information on the Rally contact Michael Chanak 513.631-9066 or chana...@att.net .

Will there be a GLBT Pride proclamation this year? Dr. John Maddux, former three term GLBT Coalition president (89-91) will approach Mayor Charlie Luken - Cincinnati and request a proclamation for June 11, 2000. Maddux speaks at the rally on June 11th. During Maddux's term as Coalition president, Luken, who was mayor at the time, refused to issue a Pride Day proclamation.

Alternating Currents: Producer Ken Colegrove will present three hours of entertainment starting at 1 p.m. at the Community Picnic on Sunday, June 11, 2000 at Hoffner Park in Northside. The live show, called "Alternating Currents OUT @ Hoffner Park," promises to be fast paced, featuring musicians, artists, poets and comedians. Don Wetterer of Alternating Currents will broadcast the show live on WAIF 88.3 FM.

Colegrove will be introducing the Pride Committee
